GALVACADE

Editor ----- Jerry Baxter

Business Manager ----- Gleneva Allen

Foreward

You are about to begin a pictorial tour through the Galva School of 1952-53. In the following pages we hope to give you a glimpse of the Galva students at work and at play in their various activities. If these pages can help bring back pleasant memories, their mission is accomplished.

As we present the inaugural edition of the Galvacade, the staff wishes to thank our sponsors whose names appear throughout the book. Without their generous help, such an undertaking would not have been possible.

THE STAFF

Dedication

To Our Parents

We consider it a privilege to dedicate the first edition of the Galvacade to the parents of the students of Galva High. To them we owe whatever honors we can give, because to us they have given everything. It is they who have made possible these happy days of our youth. Their guidance and support in all our needs are our greatest blessings. We hope in this small way we can show our appreciation and gratitude.

THE GALVACADE STAFF

Front Row—Mr. Kissinger, G. Allen, J. Baxter, J. Grell, Mr. Rellihan.
Back Row—P. Petersen, D. Graybill, S. Hustedt, J. Elze, R. Rydberg, L. Hansen, L. Weiland, G. Winterhof, E. Drury, V. Meyer, F. Webb.

The Galvacade staff is made up of two separate parts: the editorial section and the business section. Jerry Baxter was the editor and Gleneva Allen was the Business Manager.

Each member of the editorial staff worked on a different section. Following are the members of the editorial staff: Faculty, Darlene Graybill; Introduction and Seniors, Jerry Baxter; Underclassmen, Verdine Meyer; Elementary Grades, Sheryl Hustedt; Sports, Leroy Hansen; Music, Lloyd Weiland; Activities, Patty Petersen. Joe Grell was the photographer for the Galvacade.

The business staff sold advertising space in the Galvacade and also supervised the subscription campaign. The members of the business staff are Gleneva Allen, Forrest Webb, Ronnie Rydberg, Eldridge Drury, Gaylen Winterhof, and Janice Elze.

We all hope that this, the first edition of the Galvacade, will meet with your approval.

Class Prophecy

The date is May 1, 1963. The place is the lobby of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, in New York. Doyle Brown happens to meet Laura Weiland, an old classmate. They sit down at a table and begin the following conversation.

"It's been almost 10 years since I've seen you, Doyle. My, but you've grown a lot." "What have you been doing, Laura?" "Well, Doyle, I'm an author now. My latest book is 'Men, Men and More Men.' Have you heard what any of our other class members are doing now?" "I just heard that Leroy Hansen was elected Mayor of Galva last year, Laura, and Forrey Webb is now coach at that famed Hanover Jr. High. I hear that they were township champions last year. Richard Kiertzner works as the bouncer in the town tavern now. I'll bet he can handle the drunks. What ever happened to Jerry Baxter, Laura?" "He's a home economics teacher in Galva. By the way, Doyle, have you heard from Jimmy Frahm. He's a farmer now and he really surprised everyone last year by marrying a former burlesque girl. And I guess Richard Peters has been a busy man the last few years. He has to work night and day to support his family of 10. My brother, Lloyd Weiland, is working in a pet store in Sioux City, selling gold fish and canaries. That's the kind of work he always liked to do." "I hear Darlene Graybill taught school for a couple of years and then decided to settle down and raise some of her own pupils. And I read that Jerry O'Meara has been promoted to captain of a tug boat in the U. S. Navy. Elwayne Madison is a buck private in the army now. He's helping to prepare that famous army food. Joe Anna Challman has just filled her life ambition. She got a contract with the Roxie Rockets, a chorus girl's team." "Say, Doyle, did you hear that my old friend, Pat Petersen is a nurse in a hospital now. She says one of the interns is interested in her, but I think he's just after her appendix. Francis Hopkins is a truck driver now. I guess he needs a strong truck to hold him. And Ronnie Rydberg has an interesting job in a department store; he works in the women's lingerie dept. Jerry Nielsen is the only boy in our class who has don real well. I hear he has made a fortune by his smart buying on the stock market. And I guess Gaylen Sorensen is a confirmed bachelor now. All he does is paint houses, houses, and outhouses." "Well, Laura, it was really interesting hearing what our old classmates are doing, but I have to be going now. I'll see you again." Thus ends our prophecy for the Galva seniors of 1953. Is it correct? Only time will tell.

Class Will

We, the senior class of 1953, of the city of Galva, county of Ida, and the state of Iowa of the United States of America, being of sound mind and memory, do declare this to be our last will and testimony.

Elwayne Madsen wills his high-jumping ability to Roger Schneider.

Gerald Nielsen wills his rapid stride to George Schulke.

Joe Anna Challman wills her ability to study to Lawrence Ploeger.

Richard Peters wills all his women to Burnell Nelson.

Jerry Baxter wills his corner seat to 'Red' Allen.

James Frahm wills his indifference to women to Joe Grell.

Jerry O'Meara wills his ability to write poems to Van Schmidt.

Pat Petersen wills her red jeans to Audrey Hustedt.

Richard Kiertzner wills his curly hair to Jerry Moller.

Leroy Hansen wills his draft card to Verdine Otto.

Darlene Graybill wills her ability to get along with the teachers to Ronnie O'Meara.

Doyle Brown wills his manly physique to Raymond Peterson.

Lloyd Weiland wills his typing ability to Corky Larson.

Forry Webb wills his athletic ability to Roger Christiansen.

Francis Hopkins wills his 6' 3½" height to Leo Murray.

Laura Weiland wills her patience with shorthand to LaVonne Sorensen.

Gaylen Sorensen wills his black hair to Marilyn Boisen.

Ronnie Rydberg wills his boldness to Marlene Otto.

Signed and sealed this Thirteenth day of April, 1953.

The Galva Blue Devils got off on the wrong foot by losing their first two conference games. After defeating Schaller, they won over Lytton which was their homecoming. Correctionville was the only non-conference game. This was the first year Galva beat Early in a football game. Early entered the game heavily favored. After losing to Newell they ended up in fourth place in the Bo-Coon conference. The season's record was four wins and three losses, the best season Galva has ever had.

Homecoming

ROYAL PARTY

One of the annual festivities of the school year is Homecoming. This year Homecoming was held on October 2 and began with the traditional parade through Main Street. The parade consisted of floats from each grade of school symbolizing Galva's feeling toward victory. The half-time ceremonies between the Galva-Lytton football game featured the crowning of the Queen and the presentation of her attendants by Supt. Ziesmer. A dance was sponsored by the Junior Class climaxing the day.

Pat was chosen by a popular vote of the entire student body and her attendants by their respective classes. The five girls were attired in formals of pastel colors and made a pretty picture as the center of all attraction for that day. The Royal Party was driven in a convertible chauffeured by Harold Elk.

Just before the coronation ceremony the group was driven to the middle of the football field and serenaded by the band.
